

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The American Association of Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation is observing National Pulmonary Rehabilitation Week with the 2005 theme, "Celebrating Inspiration"; and,

Whereas, Pulmonary disease is the fifth leading cause of death in our nation, and in South Dakota last year, over 74,000 people were affected by a chronic pulmonary disease; and,

Whereas, Observation of Pulmonary Rehabilitation Week calls special attention to the dedicated professionals who promote the dissemination of information about pulmonary disease, its prevention, and rehabilitation; and,

Whereas, In recognition of the strides made to conquer lung disease, and in support of South Dakota's dedicated pulmonary specialists:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 13 through March 19, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens to take a healthy and sound approach to caring for their well-being and to join forces to battle this nation's killer.

PULMONARY REHABILITATION WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds
